

PRESS RELEASE

The Sinopoli Festival was annulled

The Committee Taormina Arte, sure of interpreting the feeling of the community, participates with emotion in the immense tragedy that has upset Messina and its district and tightens to the people and the families struck by so much mourning.

The events of the fifth edition of Giuseppe Sinopoli Festival, scheduled in Taormina from 7th to 10th October, are therefore annulled.

The direction, the whole staff of the Festival, Silvia, Giovanni and Marco Sinopoli, also remembering the depths family and cultural bonds that the Maestro had with this part of Sicily, are joined to the pain of Messina citizens .

The orchestras, the musicians, all the invited artists have understood with immediate sensibility the gravity of the moment, they express their own grief and they are made available, as soon as the situation will allow, to manifest their personal solidarity.
